Rights of First Offer

(a) If, at any time, any holder of Preferred Shares (the "Seller") desires to Transfer any of its Preferred Shares, other than pursuant to the paragraph set forth above, it shall first submit a written offer (the "Offer") to Transfer such Preferred Shares (collectively, the "Offered Shares") to each of the other holders of Preferred Shares or of the notes issued to redeem Preferred Shares (collectively, the "Offerees") on the terms and conditions, including price, set forth in the Offer. Each Offeree shall provide written notice within 20 business days after receipt of the Offer as to whether such Offeree wishes to take Transfer of some of all of the Offered Shares pursuant to the Offer. Failure to provide such written notice within 20 business days shall be deemed to be a rejection of the Offer. If more than one Offeree responds in writing that it wishes to take Transfer of some or all of the Offered Shares such that the number of Offered Shares such Offerees desire to take Transfer of exceeds the number of Offered Shares, then the maximum number of Offered Shares each such Offeree shall be entitled to take Transfer of shall be the number of Offered Shares that is equal to the Proportion that the sum of (a) the aggregate Redemption Price of the Preferred Shares held by such Offeree and (b) the aggregate principal amount of any notes held by such Offeree which were issued to redeem Preferred Shares, bears to the sum of (x) the aggregate Redemption price of the Preferred Shares held by all Offerees who responded in writing that they wished to take Transfer of the Offered Shares and (y) the aggregate principal amount of the notes held by all Offerees which were issued to redeem Preferred Shares, provided, however, that the Seller shall not be required to Transfer to such Offerees in aggregate less than all of the Offered Shares. In the event that all of the Offered Shares are not proposed to be taken by such other Offerees (whether in proportion to their holdings or otherwise) then the Seller shall not be required to Transfer to such Offeree less than all of the Offered Shares. Each Offeree shall have the right to designate another Person to complete the Transfer of the Offered Shares on such Offeree's behalf upon finalizing of the terms and conditions of such transfer. In the event that all of the Offered Shares are proposed to be taken up by such other Offerees (whether in proportion to their holdings or otherwise), then the Seller shall be bound to Transfer to such Offerees, and such Offerees shall be bound to accept the transfer of, all the Offered Shares within 10 business days after the expiry of the 20 business day period referred to above.

(b) If either (x) each Offeree responds in writing that it does not wish to take Transfer of any Offered Shares based on the Offer or fails to provide a written response within 20 business days of receipt of the Offer or (y) the other Offeree otherwise collectively fail to take Transfer of all of the Offered Shares, within the 10 business day period referred to in paragraph (a) above then within 110 days (the "Transfer Period") after the provision of the Offer the Seller may Transfer the Offered Shares to any other Person (the "Proposed Transferee") on such terms and conditions (the "Terms of Subsequent Offer") which contain no terms or conditions that are more favorable to the Proposed Transferee than were contained in the Offer as such terms may have been subsequently varied pursuant to negotiations between the Seller and the other Offerees or any of them during the period referred to in paragraph (a) above (as so varied, the "Terms of Original Offer"). For the purposes hereof, any conditions in the Terms of Subsequent Offer that burden the Seller and that were not included in the terms of Original Offer shall be deemed to be more favorable than the Offer, other than (i) any representation and warranty about the business and affairs of the Company to no greater extent than contained in Article III of the Stock Purchase Agreement dated March 19, 1999, as modified to reflect time periods relating to the date of the Terms of Subsequent Offer, which is contained in the Terms of Subsequent Offer or (ii) any non-commercial, immaterial terms that would not be reasonably expected to affect the investment decision of a typical investor. If upon the conclusion of the Transfer Period, the Transfer pursuant to the Terms of Subsequent Offer has not been finalized, such Transfer Period may be extended by 20 days if a binding purchase agreement has been executed between the Seller and the Proposed Transferee that sets forth the Terms of Subsequent Offer, contains no term more favorable than the Terms of Original Offer (other than the terms referred to in the preceding sentence) and contains only customary and normal conditions to closing, provided, however, that a condition to closing based on the completion of due diligence or the approval of the board of directors or equivalent body, of the transferee shall not be considered customary and normal conditions to closing.

(c) If the Transfer to the Proposed Transferee has not been completed within the Transfer period, the Seller must comply with the above two paragraphs again to completing any Transfer of Preferred Shares.

No Preferred Shares or Common Shares issued upon conversion of such Preferred Shares shall be Transferrable, within the United States or to a U.S. Person (as defined in Regulation S under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or pursuant to a valid exemption from registration under the Securities Act. Prior to offering to Transfer or Transferring any Preferred Shares or Common Shares issued upon conversion of such Preferred Shares within the United States or to a U.S. Person, a holder of such Preferred or Common Shares must provide to the Corporation an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Corporation to the effect that such offer and Transfer is pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or a valid exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

To the extent not set forth to this Article Seventh, such other terms and restrictions of Preferred Shares shall be specified in such resolution(s) as may be adopted by the Board of Directors prior to the issue of such Preferred Shares ("The Enabling Resolutions"), which resolution(s) shall be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and thereupon be deemed a part of these Articles of Incorporation.

There shall be no pre-emptive rights to subscribe to the convertible Preferred Shares or to subscribe to the Common Share to be issued by the Corporation upon conversion of such Preferred Shares and the conversion of any notes issued to redeem such Preferred Shares. (As amended on July 16, 1998 and further amended on May 3, 1999.)

All shareholders shall have no pre-emptive rights with respect to shares of stock to be issued, sold or otherwise disposed of by the Corporation to its officers and/or employees pursuant to a duly approved stock option, stock purchase, stock subscription or similar plans, provided, however, that where the number of shares of stock subject to each stock option stock purchase, stock subscription or similar plan exceeds five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of stock at the time of the approval of the plan involved, there shall be pre-emptive rights with respect to such shares in excess of the five percent (5%).
