We reply with respect to the news article entitled "Ginebra eyes three new plants on strong sales" posted in Manila Standard (Online Edition) on May 27, 2021. The article reported in part that:

"Ginebra San Miguel Inc., the liquor subsidiary of conglomerate San Miguel Corp., said Thursday it plans to build three new facilities as sales remain strong despite the pandemic.

GSMI president Ramon Ang said during the annual stockholders' meeting plans were underway for the construction of three plants in Ilocos Region, Bicol Region and Pagadian City.

Ang did not provide more details on the new facilities including capital spending, production capacity and timetable for the completion.

Aside from new manufacturing facilities, GSMI would also invest in logistics to improve its capability and expand its reach, according to Ang."

By way of response to the Exchange, we confirm that the statement of Mr. Ramon S. Ang, President and Chief Operating Officer of Ginebra San Miguel, Inc. ("GSM"), relating to the contemplated construction by GSMI of additional manufacturing facilities in the Ilocos Region, Quezon Province [not Bicol Region as reported in the news article] and Pagadian City, respectively, is concise and accurate. We shall provide the Exchange with the estimated cost of construction and projected date of completion of such additional facilities after we have completed our on-going feasibility study and evaluation. The completion of such
